

Philip Spergel, Ed.D.

THE TEST BATTERY

1) Intelligence Testing

- a) Beta III
- b) Wechsler Abbreviated Test of Intelligence (WASI)

2) Interest Testing

- a) Vocational Preference Inventory (VPI)
- b) The Strong Interest Inventory
- c) The Kuder Interest Inventory
- d) The Hackman-Gaither Vocational Interest Inventory (HGVII)
May no longer be in print but a good test

3) Achievement Testing

- a) Reading – Gates MacGinitie (preschool to adult)
Nelson Denny (more difficult)
- b) Math – Subtest of the Wide Range Achievement Test

4) Aptitude Testing

- a) Employee Aptitude Survey (EAS)
Multiple subtests measuring different areas – most are only 5 minutes.
- b) Bennett Mechanical Comprehension Test
- c) Purdue Pegboard Test
- d) The Crawford Small Parts Test
- e) The Hooper Visual Organization Test
- f) The How Supervise

5) Personality Testing

- a) Minnesota Multiphasic Personality Inventory (MMPI)
- b) 16PF
- c) Tennessee Self-Concept Scale (TSCS)
- d) The Beck Scales (Anxiety and Depression)

- e) The Handicap Problems Inventory (HPI)
- f) The Wahler Physical Symptoms Inventory
- g) The Symptoms Checklist – 90R (SCL-90-R)
- h) Structured Inventory of Malingered Symptomatology (SIMS)
- i) Projective Tests (not always accepted by the courts)
 - 1) Rorschach
 - 2) Thematic Apperception Test
 - 3) Rotter Incomplete Sentences Test
 - 4) The Hands Test
 - 5) Bender-Gestalt

For specific information of each test go on-line. You will get the name of the publishing company and then you can get a description of the tests, costs, et cetera.